Children and Young People Inclusive Practices in Services The 'How'

Practical Implications of Youth Participation

The voice of a child..

don't cry for me I'm not worth your tears don't lie to me I'm not worth the effort you said you would be here for me but in reality you gone; not, even; just there.
It's not fair that as hard as I try and as much as I want, you never even try and help me. To you, I'm nothing So don't bother. Don't open the door, I'm already gone.

Shena
Don't pretend to know me

Decision Making

The Key to life. Only you can choose the path you want. You have to take consequences for your actions, and you can't spend your life chasing something that can never be.

It's your choice.

Its not what you see, its how you look at it. Like the old saying 'God don't judge a book by its cover', in life its all about how you look at it, not what it is. Even the most cruellest saddest moments of your life can be seen as blissful if you look for the positives and dont concentrate on the negatives. Be your mind's step back and create the paths in life you want to follow, surround yourself by things you love

Every young person should have a sense of the gift that they are..

Live everyday in celebration.
Stop suffering and promote happiness!
Life is too damn good for saddness.

life, every day in celebration! " Love everything, everyone,
Love life
by shonda

Life is about the perfect moments, the perfect feelings that take your breath away.

The times when the smallest of all things are the most beautiful and small gestures mean the most.

Dream Inspire
Hope Empower Motivate
Positive outcomes Engage
